GO TAR HEELS!

1993-94 Sears Directors Cup

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill was presented with the inaugural Sears Directors Cup as the nation's best NCAA Division I sports program for 1993-94. The award is sponsored by Sears, USA Today, and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. Carolina won with 806.5 points which were based on national tournament finishes in 22 sports. UNC athletics ended the 1993-94 season with an ACC record of 11 championships breaking its own record of 9 titles set in the 1991-92 season. A prestigious honor for the University and all Tar Heel fans!

UNC Women's Basketball
1993-94 NCAA Champions

Sunday afternoon, April 3, 1994, Richmond Coliseum, Richmond, Virginia...11,966 in attendance...0.7 seconds left on the game clock...the Lady Tar Heels trail by two points to Louisiana Tech...UNC has the ball out of bounds...Stephanie Lawrence lobs the ball to teammate Charlotte Smith just behind the three point line...Smith shoots...and the rest is history! The 60-59 win gave the Lady Tar Heels their first NCAA women's basketball title and, also a first for an ACC women's basketball team. With a 33-2 record (the most wins ever for a Tar Heel women's team) and a breathtaking last shot, the Lady Tar Heels ended a phenomenal season capturing the NCAA Championship! Congratulations to Charlotte Smith for winning the ESPY Awards as the women's college basketball player of the year and for the college basketball play of the year.

UNC Women's Soccer
1994 NCAA Champions
9 Consecutive National Titles and 13 in 14 Seasons

On Sunday, November 20, 1994 the Lady Tar Heels extended their winning tradition, defeating Notre Dame 5-0, again capturing the NCAA title. The championship game was played at Merlo Field, in Portland, Oregon. The Lady Tar Heels have an unbelievable record of 340 wins, 14 losses, and 10 ties, in the history of the program. It's been said before and worth repeating, "What an amazing accomplishment by a truly talented and unequalled team.....You're in a league of your own!"

UNC Varsity Cheerleaders

The UNC Varsity Cheerleaders won the Universal Cheerleading Association Division 1A National Competition in San Diego, California on April 10, 1994. This was the Tar Heels first win since 1978. The Tar Heels won with innovative choreography and precision movements. Congratulations to this outstanding group of talented athletes!

In Memoriam

Robert R. Cornwell

1928 - 1994

This edition of the UNC Fact Book is dedicated to Mr. Robert R. Cornwell who passed away suddenly April 29, 1994. Mr. Cornwell joined the staff in the Office of the University Registrar in 1972 following a distinguished Navy career, and he remained with the Registrar's Office until 1989 when he accepted a position with the Office of Institutional Research. Bob contributed to the work of this office and to the greater University in many ways - - he was the resident-expert on the student information system; he was a superb researcher/programmer in the use of SAS; and, he was an untiring sleuth in the pursuit of inaccurate data. In addition to all this, one of the most valuable contributions that Bob made to the office and University every year was the UNC Fact Book. For this reason and because he was our dear friend and colleague, we dedicate the 1994-95 edition of the UNC Fact Book to his memory.

Distribution of Students by Race

Fall 1994

Figure 2

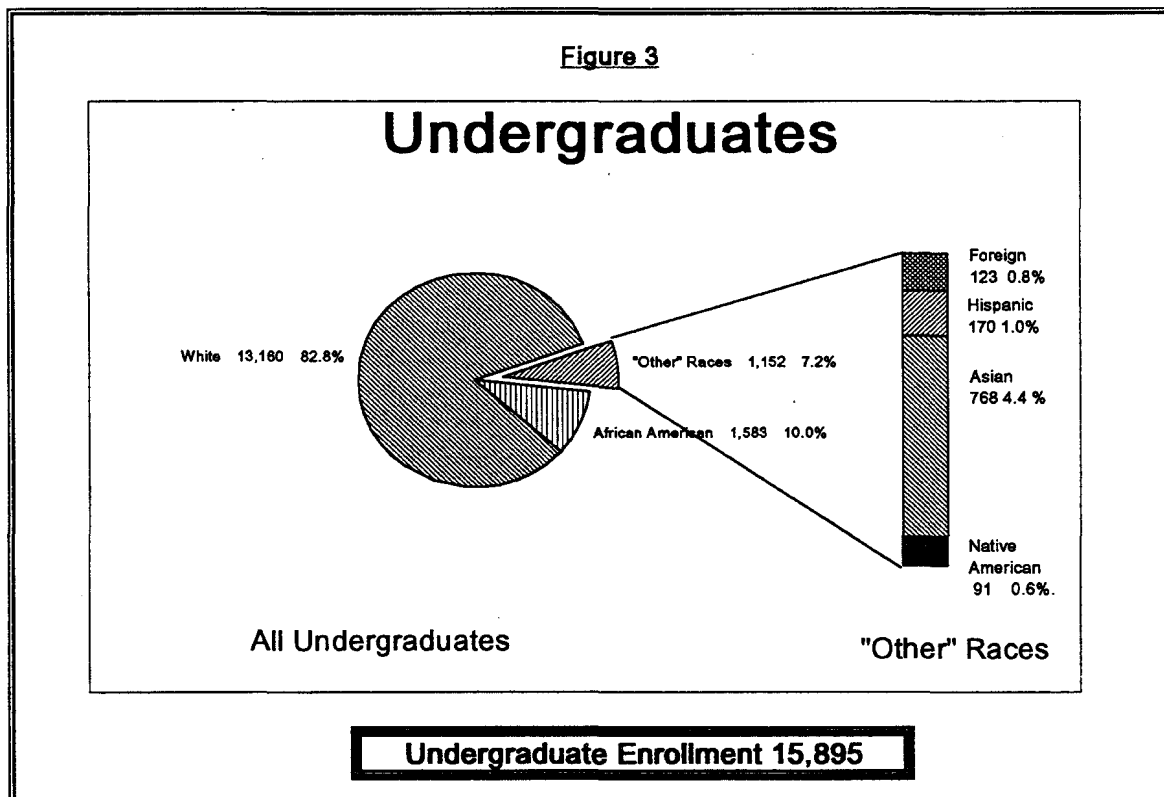

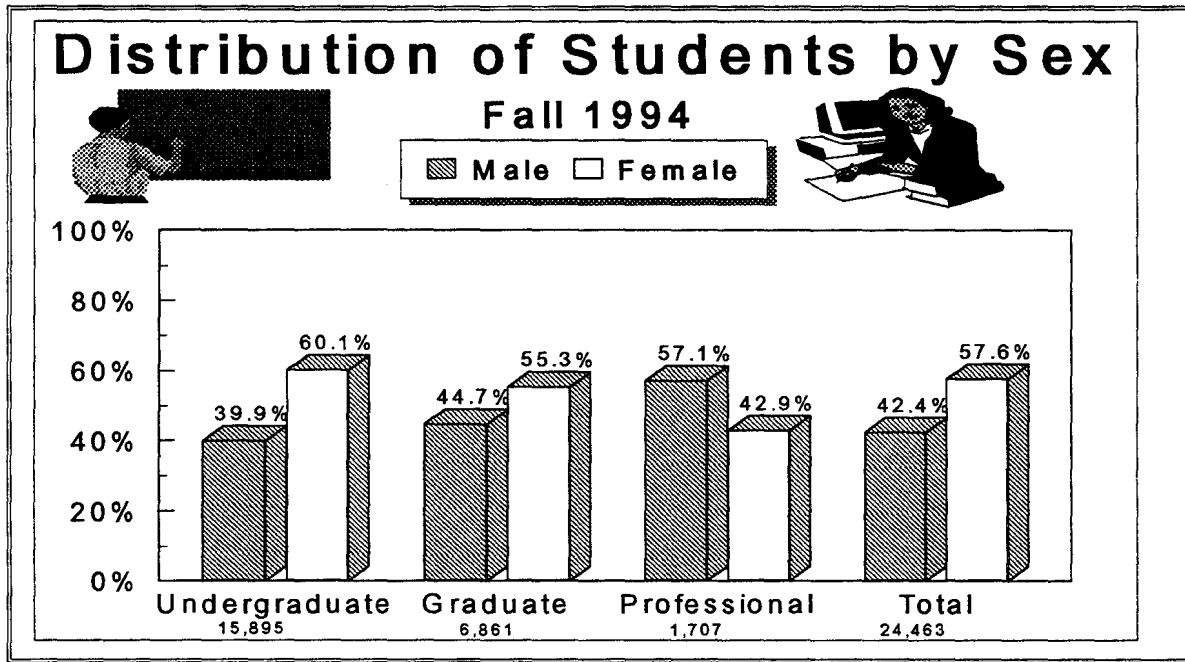

Figure 4

In 1994, 57.6% of the total enrollment was female and 42.4% was male. The percentage of graduate and undergraduate levels were similar to the total enrollment values. At the professional level the percentages were 57.8% male and 42.2% female. Figure 4 and Table 4 show the distributions by school, level and sex.

Figure 5

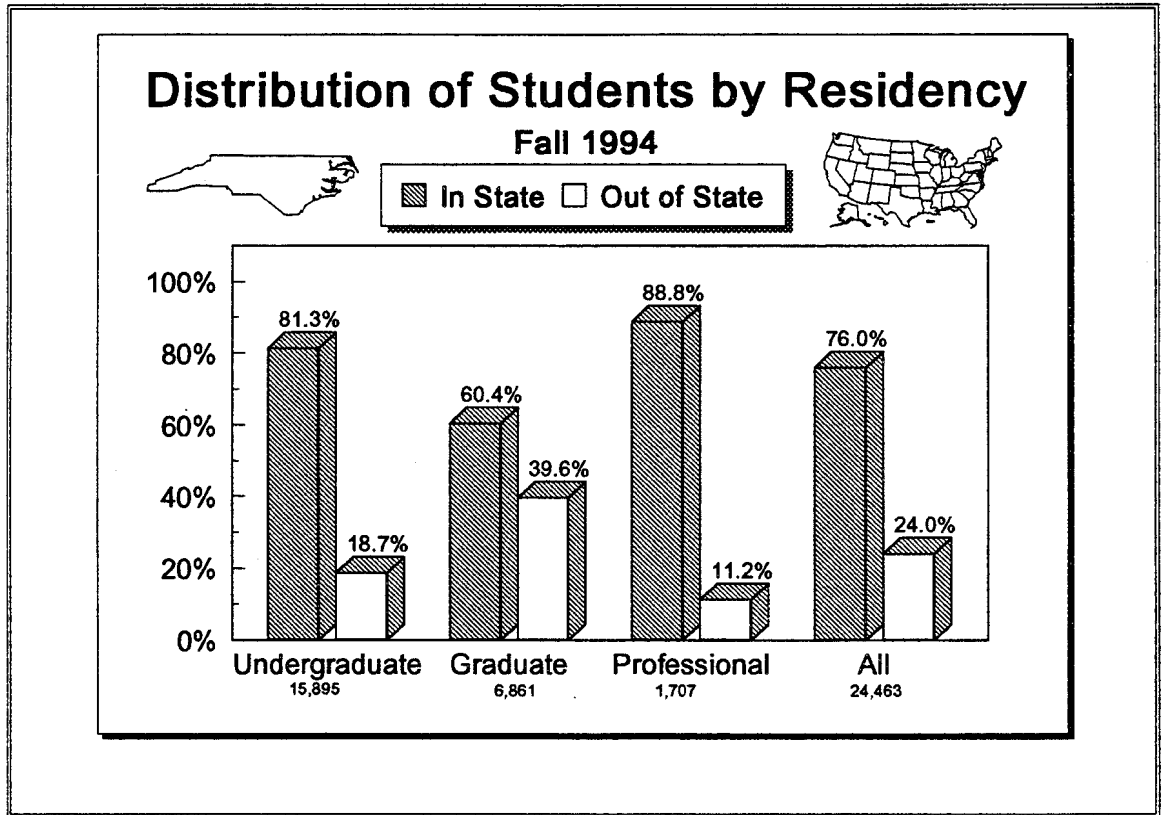

Figure 5 and Table 5 show the distribution of Fall enrollment by residence for tuition purposes. At the undergraduate and professional levels, the students are predominantly in-state at over 80%. At the graduate level the in-state/ out-of-state ratio (60.4%/39.6%) is less disparate.

Figure 6

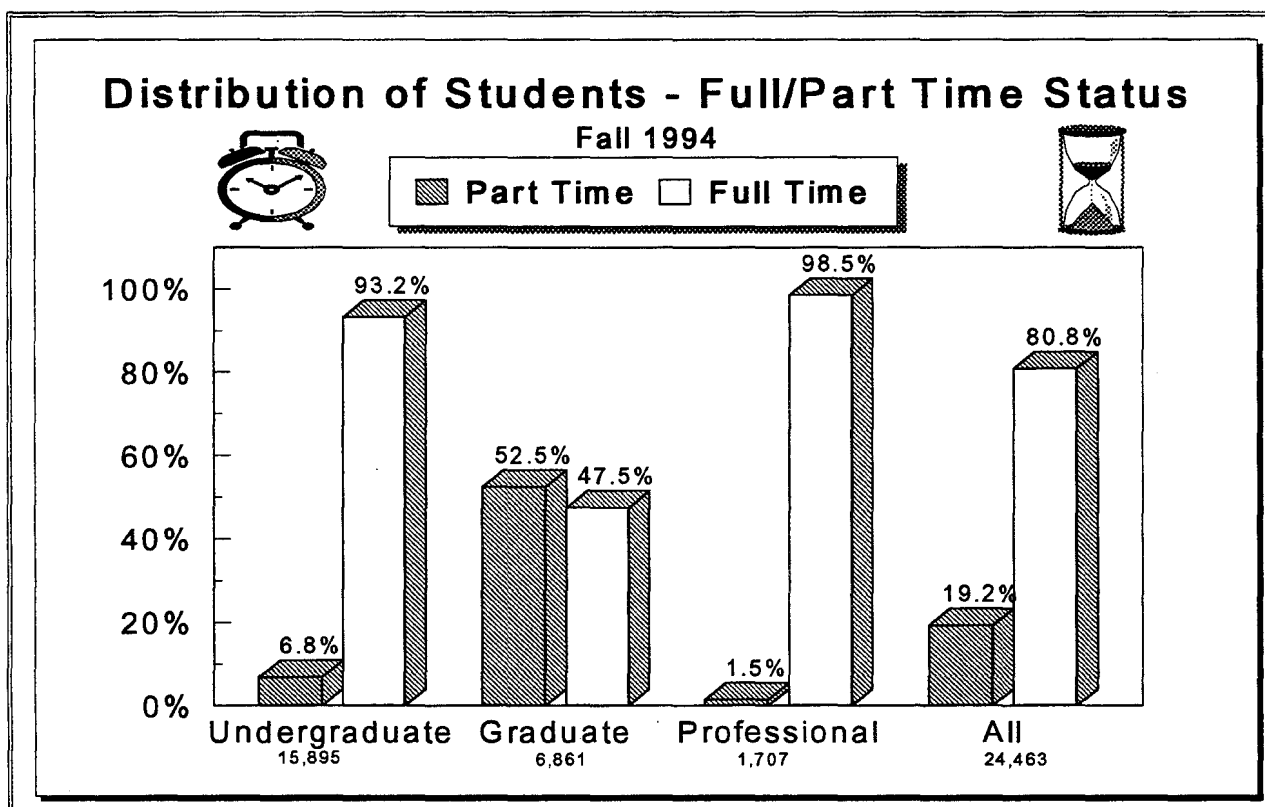

Figure 6 and Table 6 show the distribution of students by school, level, and full/part time status. Undergraduates and professional students are more than 90% full-time while graduate students are nearly equally divided. For the total enrollment, 80.8% are full-time and 19.2% are part-time. As would be expected, the largest number of part-time students are enrolled in Continuing Studies.

Figure 7

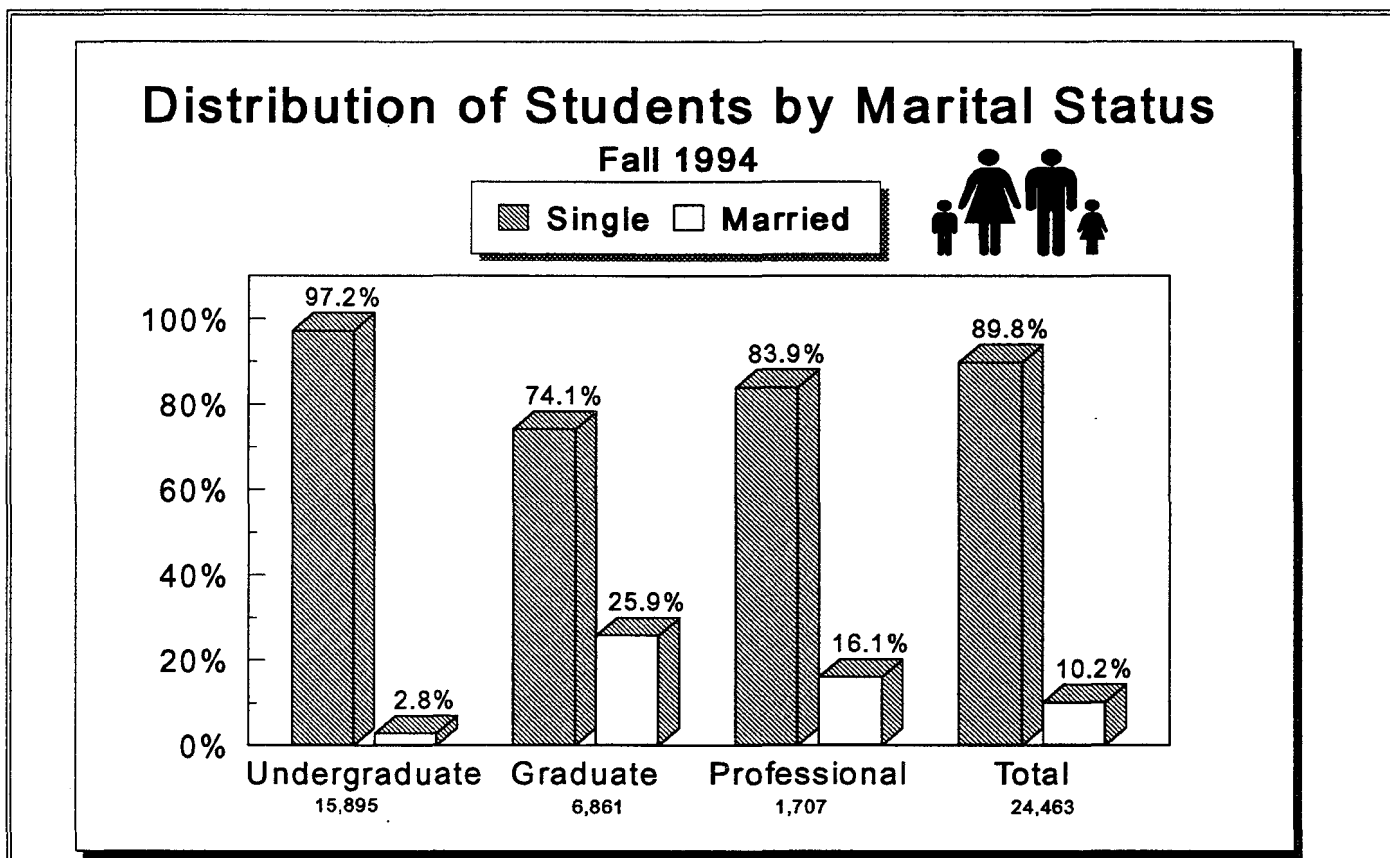

Figure 7 and Table 7 show the distribution of students by school, level, and marital status. Overall, only slightly more than a tenth of UNC's students are married. The percentage of married students increases for graduate students and decreases for undergraduates. Percentages for professional students reflect the breakdown for the total student population.

Total enrollment for the University has remained relatively stable in recent years . A growth pattern has been most evident among graduate students with a 24% increase since fall 1985.
