Institutional Accreditor for UNC-Chapel Hill:

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award baccalaureate, masters, educational specialist, and doctorate degrees. Degree-granting institutions also may offer credentials such as certificates and diplomas at approved degree levels. Questions about the accreditation of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill may be directed in writing to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097, by calling (404) 679-4500, or by using information available on SACSCOC's website (www.sacscoc.org).

Contact the Commission only in relation to the University's compliance with accreditation requirements. Normal inquiries about admission requirements, educational programs, and financial aid should be directed to the University.

*Accreditor Recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Source: Database of Accredited Post-Secondary Institutions and Programs. <https://ope.ed.gov/dapip/#/agency-list>

**Status is based on two sources: For accreditors recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, see database website referenced above; and for all others, self-reports from the school and program.

"Accredited" indicates the overall status published by the agency; the program may have monitoring or other reporting requirements.

***Review occurred in 2022; final results not yet received.
