MISSION STATEMENT

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill has been built by the people of the State and has existed for two centuries as the nation's first state university. Through its excellent undergraduate programs, it has provided higher education to ten generations of students, many of whom have become leaders of the State and nation. Since the nineteenth century, it has offered distinguished graduate and professional programs.

The University is a research university. Fundamental to this designation is a faculty actively involved in research, scholarship, and creative work, whose teaching is transformed by discovery and whose service is informed by current knowledge.

The mission of the University is to serve all the people of the State, and indeed the nation, as a center for scholarship and creative endeavor. The University exists to teach students at all levels in an environment of research, free inquiry, and personal responsibility, to expand the body of knowledge; to improve the condition of human life through service and publication; and to enrich our culture.

To fulfill this mission, the University must:

- acquire, discover, preserve, synthesize, and transmit knowledge;
- provide high quality undergraduate instruction to students within a community engaged in original inquiry and creative expression, while committed to intellectual freedom, to personal integrity and justice, and to those values that foster enlightened leadership for the State and nation;
- provide graduate and professional programs of national distinction at the doctoral and other advanced levels to future generations of research scholars, educators, professionals, and informed citizens;
- extend knowledge-based services and other resources of the University to the citizens of North Carolina and their institutions to enhance the quality of life for all people in the State; and
- address, as appropriate, regional, national, and international needs.

This mission imposes special responsibilities upon the faculty, students, staff, administration, trustees, and other governance structures and constituencies of the University in their service and decision-making on behalf of the University.

Founding

The University of North Carolina opened its doors to students on January 15, 1795 as the first state university. New Hope Chapel (now Chapel Hill) was chosen for its central location as the site of the University. Hinton James, the first student to enroll, arrived in February 1795. By March 1 the University had 41 students and 2 professors. Seven students, including Hinton James, received their diplomas in 1798, becoming the first graduating class of the University. Authorized by the State Constitution in 1776, the University was chartered in 1789, and was the only public university in the nation to award degrees to students as early as the eighteenth century.

Women were first admitted to the University in 1897. However, admittance was permitted only for bona fide residents of Chapel Hill in graduate courses or as upper level transfers. The first five women to enroll were Mary Shackelford Nee McCrae, Cecye Roanne Dodd, Lulie Watkins, Sally Walker Stockard, and Dixie Lee Bryant. In 1898, Sally Walker Stockard received her bachelor's degree becoming the first woman graduate of the University. In 1917, Lillie Dale Whitaker, Mary Louise Stover, Mary Louisa Cobb, and Nell Abbie Patterson Pickard enrolled as the first female freshmen.

Organization

The University was consolidated in 1931 with the Women's College at Greensboro and North Carolina State College at Raleigh under a single Board of Trustees. In 1971 the General Assembly redefined the University of North Carolina System to include all 16 of the four-year public higher education institutions in the State. The Board of Governors was established as the governing body responsible for all basic policies for the University of North Carolina as a multi-institutional university.

UNC-Chapel Hill and the other institutions that comprise the UNC System each has its own separate administrative structure. The 16 constituent institutions, year they were founded, and their Chancellors are listed below.

*The percentage returned is based on the number in the freshman class; for example, there were 2,887 freshmen in the 1974 entering class, 90.3% returned for their sophomore year, 81.6% (of the original 2,887) returned for their junior year and 78.5% for their senior year.

SAT scores were recentered by the College Board starting in April 1995 which is reflected in the 1996 freshman class.

Figure 8 and Table 12 show comparative values in retention and graduation rates for UNC-CH and 30 members of the Association of American Universities (AAU). UNC-CH shows significantly higher retention and graduation rates than the comparison group. For example, in 1989 the comparison group shows a senior retention rate of 73.0% and a five-year graduation rate 60.6%. The corresponding values for UNC-CH are 86.0% and 81.9% respectively. As of this publication, comparative data are only available through 1989.

Figure 9 and Table 13 show comparative values in African-American retention and graduation rates for UNC-CH and 30 members of the Association of American Universities (AAU). With the exception of three years, 1988 through 1990, five-year graduation rates for UNC-CH African-American students have steadily improved. In 1991, group's five-year rate is 65.3%, an increase of 3.6 percentage points from the previous year. As of this publication, comparative data are on available through 1989. For all of the periods from 1982 through 1989, the five-year graduation rate for UNC-CH's African-American cohort has been substantially higher (by no fewer than 3.4 percentage points in 1982 and by as many as 23 percentage points in 1987) than the comparative group. Retention rates are also higher.

Results of the 1996 Graduating Senior Survey

Of the class of 1996, 1613 graduating seniors responded to a survey sponsored by the Office of Institutional Research and UNC General Administration. Respondents ranked their degree of satisfaction with academic and departmental advising, as well as their general education at UNC-Chapel Hill. In cases of advising dissatisfaction, students were asked to indicate the central reason.

- The vast majority of seniors were pleased with the education they received at Carolina. Nearly 44% reported that they were “very satisfied” while 49.5% were “satisfied” with the quality of education they received at the University. Only 3.7% of respondents were dissatisfied or very dissatisfied with the overall quality of education.
- When asked about academic advising in General College or Arts and Sciences, 36.4% of the respondents felt satisfied or very satisfied with the advising they received. A total of 28.5% were neutral and 35.1% were dissatisfied or very dissatisfied. Of those students expressing dissatisfaction with the academic advising system, 42.8% felt that their advisor was not knowledgeable about the requirements. Other students reported difficulty in scheduling an advising appointment (19.1%), finding the office staff unfriendly or unhelpful (17.0%), or feeling that their advisor was unapproachable (15.1%).
- Many students (56.4%) were satisfied with advising in their major departments. Of those who responded negatively, almost half (44.8%) felt their department did not care about advising students. Other complaints included unapproachable advisors (15.0%), advisors who were not knowledgeable (26.1%), difficulty in scheduling appointments (8.8%), or advice that conflicted with central academic advising (5.2%).

More than 40% of the graduates plan to earn a Master’s, Doctoral or Professional degree after graduation. Another 27% plan to work for a private business. Slightly over 10% of respondents have no idea what they will be doing after graduation.

Notes:

1. Faculty counts include all employees holding any type of faculty rank regardless of what their primary appointment might be.
2. Librarians are included as EPA Non-Faculty (Exempt from the State Personnel Act) even though they have faculty status.
3. Staff (SPA) are those employees subject to the State Personnel Act.

Texas	$79,589	$51,569	$47,551

In comparison to the five public Research I/AAU Institutions to which UNC-Chapel Hill most often competes for top faculty and students, full professor salaries are still relatively low. The salary increases received in 1996 did help UNC-CH Associate Professor salaries improve from the lowest in this group in 1995-96 to the second highest this year. Assistant Professor salaries at UNC-CH rank fourth out of the six institutions, similar to the previous year's comparisons. It should be noted that these institutional averages are based on combined 9 month salaries and 12 month salaries adjusted to 9 month and exclude medical school faculty and others whose positions are funded primarily through non-state funds.

Glossary

AAU--Association of American Universities - This organization includes the top 62 research universities in North America; membership is by invitation. Forty of the members participate voluntarily in an annual data exchange (AAUDE) which is the source of AAU data used in the Fact Book.

AAUP -- American Association of University Professors - This is a national organization concerned with issues related to the employment and professional lives of college and university faculty. The AAUP sponsors an annual survey of faculty salaries at over 2,200 postsecondary institutions, the results of which are published in the March-April issue of the organization's journal, Academe.

Academic Affairs--At UNC this area is comprised of the College of Arts and Sciences (which includes the General College), the School of Business Administration, the School of Education, the School of Journalism and Mass Communication, the School of Law, the School of Information and Library Science, the School of Social Work, the Institute of Government, and the Division of Continuing Education.

Continuing Studies--The University's academic and administrative unit for part-time students. (Annual Report to the College of Arts and Sciences from Continuing Studies)

EPA--Exempt from the State Personnel Act. Includes all employees (faculty/academics and non-faculty) on university payrolls that are not subject to the guidelines set forth by the State Personnel Act. (PDF Manual) EPA Non-Faculty includes (some, but not all) research personnel, non-teaching administrators and academic officers. Although they hold faculty rank, librarians are also included in this group.

Fiscal Year (FY)--An accounting period of 12 months which, at the state level, runs from July 1 through June 30.

Fixed-Term--Faculty appointment which is limited to a specified contract period, usually one to five years. These appointments are subject to termination upon their expirations. (Trustee Policies and Regulations, July 1, 1994)

FTE Enrollment--"Full-time equivalent" measure of student enrollment based on attempted resident credit hours. Based on this measure, a part-time student is represented as a fraction (.25, .50, or .75) of a full-time student. Among UNC institutions, an undergraduate course load of 12 or more resident hours constitutes full-time; for graduate and professional students, a course load of 9 or more resident hours constitutes full-time. The FTE of a full-time student is "1".

Gross Square Feet--Measure associated with the floor areas of entire exterior building structures. (Facilities Inventory and Utilization Study, 1995)

Health Affairs--At UNC this area is comprised of the Schools of Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, and Public Health.

Head Count Enrollment--Measure of student enrollment which (unlike FTE) does not adjust for part-time status. Any student, regardless of full-time/part-time status, is tallied as "1" in enrollment counts.

Median Salary--Value based on the mid-point or the fiftieth percentile of all salaries represented in a discrete category.

Non-Resident Alien--Foreign persons who are in the U.S. on a temporary basis and who do not have the right to remain indefinitely. This category is distinct from the resident-alien which refers to persons who are not citizens or nationals of the U.S., but who have been lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the U.S. and hold a "green card". Non-resident aliens are usually reported separately in enrollment tallies by ethnicity.

Off-Campus Credit Studies (OS)--Administers receipt-based courses and degree programs that are taught away from the campus or outside the conventional academic calendar. (Division of Continuing Education Annual Report, 1994-95)

Professional Students/Programs--Associated with UNC-CH degrees offered in four schools: Law (J.D.), Dentistry (D.D.S.), Medicine (M.D.), and Pharmacy (Pharm.D.).

Glossary cont'd

Research I Institution--Classification which identifies the leading U.S. universities in terms of federal financial support (at least $40-million annually) and the number of doctoral degrees (50 or more annually). (Carnegie Council on Policy Studies in Higher Education). These institutions offer a full range of baccalaureate programs, are committed to doctoral-level education, and give high priority to research. (Chronicle of Higher Education, April 6, 1994)

SPA--Subject to the State Personnel Act. Includes all employees on university payrolls that are subject to the guidelines set forth by the State Personnel Act. (PDF Manual)

Tenure Track--Probationary-term faculty appointment conferred with the expectation that in normal course (pursuant to institutional policies and regulations) the individual will be eligible to receive permanent tenure. (The Code, August 1988) (Trustee Policies and Regulations Governing Academic Tenure) At UNC-CH this category includes some associate professors, as well as assistant professors and instructors.

Tenured--Permanent faculty appointment conferred in accordance with prescribed institutional policies and regulations that are intended to promote and protect the academic freedom of faculty. (The Code, August 1988) At UNC-CH this category includes (full) professor, associate professor, and in a few cases (fewer than 1%), assistant professor ranks.

Unclassified Students--Enrolled students who are not currently seeking a degree.
